I worked at a Christian camp Denise could attend every summer. This is as heartbreaking as it is surprising to me. Denise had a love for God, his people and as importantly, her beautiful family. The kid loved the pursuit of excellence and tried to share that with and good to all. She will be missed tremendously.

Denise,So I've been studying all of my dental assistant material..and i must say I coming along quite well .. a few days before you passed you gave me a boost of confidence and told me "girl you got this, you'll do great" .. I read the message over and over .. it's my now driving force. That is/was my favorite attribute about our friendship .. we would always give each other a positive (and very honest ..haha!) pep talk when needed. I love you and miss you unconditionally, Denise. To all of the family .. I am deeply sorry that you are having to experience this great loss. She was an astounding person and has left an everlasting impression in my heart.

I cannot express my feelings right now... sadness is the word that comes to mind but it is not a strong enough word for how I feel... you meant a lot to me, you were like my sister... even though we called each other "boo" and I joked about turning you gay LOL.... not a moment has gone by where I didn't think about you, ever since Michael told me what happened.... I have so many happy memories, and even more funny memories.... but that does not fill the hole that I have in my heart now... I've only known you for 13 years, so I can't even imagine what others are going through who have known you since you were born... I'm sure your passing is tearing them up even more than it's tearing me up.... I hope you can see us, so you know how much you meant to us all. I will think about you every day and never, ever, ever, ever, ever forget you, or all of our times together. I love you, boo. Miss you so much already. Love,Erika
