I can't say Cathey, without saying Kenny, and I still find this so very very hard to believe. I know you told me over and over this was going to happen, but it is too hard for a mind to adjust to the fact that it did. Cathey , you are truly unique and special. A one of a kind friend, and I truly feel so bad for Joey, Kenny and the rest of your family. You will always live in my heart and never be forgotten, especially your smile and laugh. I just want you to know how much you are loved, and how hard this is to believe. Truly a true and one of a kind friend. xo

Cathey, I just heard , and I am devastated. You and Kenny were the best, always watching everyone's back, always with a smile for everyone. I feel so bad for Kenny and the kids and for you... who loved life so very very much and always made things right for everyone around you. One of the most caring and generous friends I have ever had. How I will miss you and please know I never ever will forget you and your kindness and generosity, you were an angel on earth and so needed here. I truly am at a loss, when I heard it was like a punch in the stomach. You are loved and will never be forgotten. xo
