I am a nail tech that did Kay's nails for about 10 or 12 years until I retired in July. She was a lovely person and a good friend..I was so sorry to hear of her of her passing. She taught me about her Jewish faith and was going to teach me how to play Majong..I'm sorry I didn't follow up but have been going thru medical problems since I retired. I know since Joann died she was lost...I know they're together now. She loved her family and spoke about them always..i think what I liked most about her was she spoke her mind and had the gift of gab...She's one of my clients that I trully missed...my thoughts go out to her family....Pat Gell
