Dick was a dear friend of mine and my left hand man, literally. He helped me on many occasions, doing a lot of handy man jobs. We enjoyed going to coffee together and his favorite to order was biscuits and gravy. He was always a pleasure to be around and will be truly missed. My sympathy to all his family. Sincerely, Dick Occhipinti

Dad, as a child I thought you were the strongest man on the planet. As I grew into an adult I knew you were. You have and always will be that example of a Man, a Father and a Husband. I hope and pray that I am a fraction of the example that I have seen in you. There is now a hole in this world and me without you here. I miss you deeply.
