Dearest Daddy, I miss you so. I think of you often and it makes me smile. I am no longer shedding tears for you. It's not because i have forgotten you, it's because we had a love that only a father and daughter can share. That is a memory that will never be taken from my heart. I know you are at peace now and loving the reunion you must be having everyday with your lost loved ones. Congratulations daddy you now know Jesus. That is a wonderful new beginning in your new life. A death is sad but also a gift from God. I love the thought that you shared this very magical time with your loved one's here on earth then was also able to share your time with everyone up there in Heaven. I love you daddy.
