Dear Mom,Today is the first Mother's Day you are not physically here in my life to share this day with. Now I am celebrating your memory and all the years we had together. This day is not the same without you, but I hope you know how much I love and miss you. I think of you all the time and hope your spirit is with me always. I am sending love, hugs and kisses a long way to you, but you are forever close in my heart. Your loving daughter, Lisa

Dear Prissy,There's an old saying "you can't pick your family, but you can pick your friends", and boy is that true, cause 70 years ago I saw you playing stoop ball in the park & on that day I made one of my best decisions, "I picked you to be my friend". Yes Prissy, 70 years of friendship - we've been through hell & back together, & we always did for each other. Yes Pris that's what friends are for. Well you're not here anymore, but let me tell you something, you will always be with me, you will never be forgotten, you are & always will be my oldest & dearest "Best Friend". Love Ya, Lily

It looks like my first post never made it onto the website so hopefully I will have better luck this time. Aunt Penny, you will forever be in my thoughts and prayers. Your smile and special laugh was always a precious gift for anyone to behold. Your presence in my life gifted me with a childhood unparalleled. You taught me how to walk to your house from school when I was 8 years old. It was also you who gave me my name in the hospital when I was born. The holidays have always had an emptiness to them since the families lost contact, but the memories are fresh and every bit as sharp as they were when we either spending a holiday at your house enjoying your food or at College Point with Uncle Morty and Aunt Barbara, or just casual, me playing with Lisa while you and Uncle Gus talked with my mother and father till midnite over coffee and cake. Thank you so much for being a part of my life experience as a child. Our talks on Fillmore Ave still resonate. And I will always love your children. I have many pictures of you and will forward some of them to Russell and Lisa as soon as I go through them. But not all. I still want your face to grace the pages of my photo album which is my most cherished possession because it reminds of moments where I had the most incredible family around me during a more simpler time. You're all gone now and you're all together... In years time the cousins we make that same journey. And hopefully we can all enjoy one of your wonderful dinners... just like we all used to. A family once again. Love, your nephew Scott.

Grandma Penny, I still can't believe that you are no longer here with us. In my mind and my heart you are still very much alive. I will forever cherish the memories that I have of the good times that we spent together. I know that you are happy and with Papa, Chi-Chi, Peanuts, and your brothers and sisters whom you loved and missed so terribly. I love you so much, Grandma and I always will. Love, Chrissy

Grandma, I will forever cherish the memories that I have with you. visiting over the summers and Christmas, you always made it a special time for me and Denise. I never thought my time with you was limited and I am sorry for not visiting more and I hope you know how much I love you. I know we will see each other again someday, but until then please tell papa I love and miss him and I am sending love to you both always. Love always, Dana

Dear Aunt Penny , You were the light and inspiration to your family. My Dad,Mom,Me and My sister loved you very much! We will miss you so much! My condolences to Russel,Lisa and family! And now and you begin your new journey with your parents, brothers and sisters. You will always be remembered for your caring, loving, giving ways. As it says in the word that "For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal."2 Corinthians 4:17-18 Love you always, Jeff D'Alessandro

Dear Aunt Penny, When I came into the family at age 71/2 you welcomed me with open arms immediately and you always made me feel like I always belonged there. My growing up years were somewhat tough but you were always there to comfort me and explain. You were so much more than an Aunt to me, you were like my mother. You were my favorite and I have some many wonderful memories of our families being together. No one else can make eggplant parmigiana like yours. Rest in peace as you join Uncle Gus and Morty, Lenny, Connie, Jan and my mom, your beloved sister, Mindy. Love you, Ellen
