It's been over a year since my Mom went to heaven and I still think of her every day. I looked forward to seeing her every spring when Donna & I went to Fl. to visit. I still picture her at the table ready to play the dice game that she enjoyed so much. God Bless you Mom.

I still remember her from bingo at the various places where we went to play. I also remember one New Years night in Biloxi. In our hearts she is not gone, God just needed a flower for his bouquet. MICKI HOBBS (Weeki Wachee. Fl.)

My thoughts and prayers are with your whole family Shirley. You should feel so proud that you helped your mom live to the ripe young age of 102! Now she has gone Home. Have comfort in knowing she is in His hands now and with her loved ones that have gone on before her. Though you have watched over her for so many years, she will now watch over you. Love & Blesses, Carol (Spada)

I have many memories of Aunt Barbara (my grandmother Sophie Zech's sister), but my fondest memory is of her and my grandma dancing the polka at a family wedding! I am sorry that I have not seen you in many years but am trusting that you are with your other family members who have gone before you.

My deepest sympathy goes out to all of you. It doesn't matter how old your mother is when she passes or how old you are, she's still your mother and you will miss her. There is just no way to prepare for the loss of a loved one. Thank God for our faith, which teaches us that some day we will all be reunited. Elizabeth Paruch (your cousin Eleanore Nowak's daughter)

My Grandma was my 'other mother'. She loved me unconditionally and never judged me. She taught me many things like sewing & crafts, Polish receipes and cooking and devotional praying. She was always there for my children. We will miss her terribly. I am thankful for the time that I had with her and am grateful that she is now with Jesus and in her new heavenly body. She can see and walk again. I bet she is dancing a polka right now.
