Mom, I love you and miss you so much already. It is hard to imagine that I won't be able to pick up the phone anymore just to say "Hi" or look forward to your visits each year as you and Dad headed back south after your "tours" on Long Island. Mom, everything I am, everything I have achieved, especially my love and faith in the Lord, you made possible by your love, support and exquisite example. It is a distinct honor and singular blessing to be called your son. So, no "good byes" but only a sweet "hasta luego" until we are all together again in the Kingdom. Your loving #3 Son, Rich

Thank you, Mom, for the man David is today. Without your love and guidance he would not be the amazing father, loving husband and all around fabulous man that he is. You will be missed greatly, but your legacy shines in the lives your children have created.

An honor and privilege to have known such a remarkable, courageous and loving woman even if only for a short while. Add to that a unified, supportive and caring family and you have a gift from up above. I'm grateful that I was given the opportunity to know Martha and her loving family who have all touched my heart and soul like none other. God's love truly shines upon you all. With heartfelt condolences, Karen
