Nitza was such a wonderful woman. I truly enjoyed our visits together. She was very kind and loving.. My heart aches for the pain Jim will go through without Nitza by his side. My God bless her and keep her.

Many years have passed since our high school days at Mother Cabrini HS in Manhattan, but the memories endure and bring smiles to my heart. Nitza will be missed by all who knew and loved her. May her presence continue to be felt by each of us as our journey home continues.

My thoughts are with Nitza and her family and friends. I knew her from many years ago and graduated from Mother Cabrini High School with her in 1963. She was gentle and thoughtful and I'm sure her attributes got even richer as she blossomed with her life, her family and friends. May she rest in peace.
