My caring thoughts to my cousins John and Paula, and my Uncle John. When we did get to visit Aunt Marie, she always impressed me with her style and ease, and I always felt so welcomed by her. Love to you Aunt Marie.

Marie was the most loving person I know and one who thought of everyone but her self. She had a very loving husband in John and they both reached out with a loving hand to those in need. I will miss her and she will be in my prayers always.
