I was fortunate enough to know Edie, however only for a short time, but we became instant friends, She was a loving and very caring person and always there for you when things in your life were not going well. I will miss not seeing you at Spinners, along with many of the other regulars that go there. Edie and I took a trip to Biloxi in August 2014, (to play slots, of course) we had a great time and I am so glad that we had the opportunity to do that together, I will never forget you and your caring ways. Everytime I thought of my "Burden Bear" that you gave me, I always thought of you. You will be missed by me. My prayers and thoughts go out to your Family. I know you are happy to be re-united with the Love of your life, your loving husband Jim. Ann Rock
