Dear Barbara, a poem for you:My Aunt I thought I saw her face today In the sparkle of the morning sun. And then I heard the angel say, "Her work on earth is done." I thought I heard her voice today Then laugh her hearty laugh. And then I heard the angel say, "There's peace little one at last." I thought I felt her touch today In the breeze that rustled by. And then I heard the angel say, "The spirit never dies." I thought that she had left me For the stars so far above. And then I heard the angel say, "She left you with her love." I thought that I would miss her And never find my way. And then I heard the angel say, ""She's with you everyday"

Aunt Net, I have been putting off coming to this page because I have been hoping it would not be here, not true. So please forgive me for not writing sooner. I am going to miss you more than you will ever know. My heart cries out each and every time you pass through me. I am so sorry, sorry that we here on earth have lost an amazing woman, that woman would be you! I am happy that you are with Uncle Freddie, your Mother and sister and God. That is of some comfort. Hold your head up high, spread your wings, and know that we here on earth love you. Your niece, Serenna Cubernot a message from my mother in law had to share I believe this is something your Aunt would like to say, it will help you in your sadness: Grieve a while for me if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust It's only for a while that we must part So bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see me or touch me. I'll be near . . . and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear All of my love around you soft and clear.
