Such a wonderful loving woman! My thoughts, love and prayers are you with you Kathy, Wendy and the rest of the family..Please find peace in knowing that she will be with you forever. The funniest things happen and you will turn and say, Mom was that you.. It happens to us all the time.. just the little things..I am sorry I will not be able to attend the service, but know that I will be there in spirit, praying for all you. Love you Kathy,Love Rose Nardello

To Ann's dear family:Your Nanny/Mom will be missed dearly. I know how much she was loved and how much she loved you all. She always had so much pride and love to share. I thought I would share this poem because it means so much to me....Release MeWhen I am gone, release me, let me go.I have so many things to see and do.You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,Be happy that we had so many years.I gave you my love, you can only guessHow much you gave to me in happiness.But now it's time I traveled on alone.So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must,Then let your grief be comforted by trust.It's only for a while that we must part,So bless the memories within your heart.I won't be far way, for life goes on.So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.And if you listen with your heart, you'll hearAll of my love around you soft and clear.And then when you must come this way alone.I'll greet you with a smile, and "Welcome Home".Rest in Peace, Ann Corrigan, with your beautiful daughter and husband.
