I loved her more than I could ever put into words. My heart is full with all her words of wisdom and advice. I knew how proud she was of me because she told me often. I knew how much I meant to her because she showed me. I know that if there is a way, she will find her way to tell me she is ok and with my mom. My heart is at peace knowing she can walk and be free but my heart is empty because I will never pick up the phone to talk to her, reach out and be able to hug her or hear her call me her "Dulie". This is not forever. I know I will see her again. I feel it in my heart. Until then, grandma...
