Timothy W. Wallace of Hudson, FL has passed on June 13, 2016 after a short illness at the age of 67. He is survived by his 3 sisters: Rebecca Good, Nancy Videla, and Kathy Burton. 3 Children: Jennifer Muzzy, Bradley Wallace, and Jeffrey Wallace. 2 Grandchildren: Ivy Muzzy and Elijah Muzzy.

Tim Wallace was born Timothy Wayne Wallace June 3th, 1949 in Toledo, Ohio. He was the only son of Charles T and Christine Wallace. He moved to Florida at a young age to start his life journey. He briefly lived in Tecumseh, MI and then returned back home to New Port Richey (Hudson), FL.

Tim Wallace was a man of many great qualities. Many will agree some of his best qualities were having a sense of humor, showing compassion, being happy, easy going and fun, and sharing his Love. He was a man of many talents. He also always had a story to share too. He was educated at the University of Kentucky. He had military experience in the US Army during the Vietnam War era. Tim was a Firefighter, Paramedic, helicopter flight medic, ER/Trauma Tech., and a passionate carpenter in his short life. He loved his wood work and carpentry. Over the many years he has made many beautiful pieces, which are tokens of his love that he shares with us. Please Never Forget this God Fearing, Loving, Candid, Humorous man. May his stories live on.

My Beloved Boyfriend, I saw you over 30 years ago at our 20 year high school reunion. You still were as handsome as you were when you were 17! I asked about you and wondered why you didn't come to our 50th this weekend in Toledo, Jacque Bergsman and I were walking together on our high school tour reminiscing about old friends on Friday afternoon September 21,2018. I wondered why you didn't come and shared that with her. She stopped our walk and looked at me, "Diana, Tim died in 2016". I was stunned. I had no idea and was angry no one had called me to tell me. I had a heavy heart all weekend.Your picture was on the "The Memorial Wall" for deceased classmates. So surreal...I carried a piece of you in my heart since we were kids, seniors in high school and since your first year at Western Kentucky and I confess, your Army picture is still with me. My handsome, kind, sweet, wonderful, fearless boyfriend... Tim Wallace is gone. I wish we could have kept in contact but life goes fast and our paths split along the way.I remember Becky and Cathy. In fact I have Cathy's school picture in my 1968 Whitmer High School yearbook, along with the back page totally filled with your writing of love for me and your hopes for your's and my future.My dear sweet man, I hope you had a joyful life with your children and family. I pray this brief illness that took you didn't make you suffer. You didn't deserve to suffer. I know you're in heaven. I know you're resting in a the arms of the angels because you were one on earth. We had it tough when we were 17 but we had each other. Now, you are forever passed in this life. I hope we meet again in heaven or on earth in our next life. Rest in sweet peace my dear soul. You will be in my prayers, never forgotten.Diana Garno

Tim was a kind sweet man who always welcomed me into his home. He built this beautiful treehouse in his back yard and a tire swing, some of my fondest childhood memories are of spending summer afternoons at his house playing in that tree.

In 1984 Tim was already a much respected paramedic at Pasco County Fire Rescue. He and his partner, Mike Schaffner, monitored me through my orientation as a new paramedic. A friendship developed between the three of us that has been a special part of my life ever since. Though we did not see each other often, each time was a special occasion. My wish is that Tim's heavenly journey leads him to Mike who preceded him in death by one year. Love to them both and condolences to all the Wallace family.

The black panther scare. 40 years ago on a full moon. Everyone was in bed. I woke up because I heard a noise. I looked out the window and saw a panther sitting on top of our pump house. I woke Tim (my big brave brother) to show him. He told me to be very quiet. He scurried (yes scurried) around the house to make sure all doors and windows were shut. I never saw my big brave brother so scared. Of course I got scared. Tim always knew danger. Our mom woke up hearing Tim and I whispering. She flew open the patio door, walked outside and picked up the black garbage bag off the pump house and said: "there, I took care of that black panther". The expression on Tims face was priceless!!
