Jimmy and I shared a lot of great times with you and G. Living across the street from you I could always count on looking out my window and you were either working out in your garage or cleaning the rims on your truck. You loved that truck. And your signature sun glasses, orange mirrored ones. Your friendship will always be treasured by us. Peace be with you.

My memories of you... hmmm. I met you 26 years ago when you were best friends with my ex husband Mike. I could tell some stories about you two. But I will keep that between you and him. My recent memories are when you and Gina would come over for game night or dinner. Mexican train and you always cooked your own steak. Lol... When Gina was in the hospital you never ever left her side and now, she never left yours. You had a heart of gold and I'm so happy that we had a chance to meet in this life. You will always be remembered, never forgotten. Until that day comes again that we shall meet rest my friend. We love you. Gina, Darryn and the rest of the family please except our deepest condolences. You are all in our thoughts. Love, cheri', Scott and family.
