Miss you Jimmy. Easter is tomorrow and you will be missed sitting at the table smiling and telling stories. You spent every holiday with us and the kids still talk about all of the memories we made together. Sometimes I dream about you and when I wake up I'm sad that it was only a dream. I will never forget all of those loving and beautiful things you told me. Your quiet, private talks with me will always remain in my heart.

Missing you everyday Jimmy. It's funny because you and I know the truth about how you felt. False words can be written, but that doesn't make them true. Jimmy another Thanksgiving is coming up up and my family will once again miss you being here with us. We spent so many wonderful holidays together every year. My kids and grandkids miss you so much. They still talk about all the fun times we all had at the parks, beaches, picnics and restaurants. Every time we go to Pizza Villa they make the rings out of the straw paper like you showed them. They always remember all the funny things you taught them. The most heartwarming, loving things that mean the most to me was just all of us being together hanging around in the house. You were there with me for all the births of my grandkids and you watched them grow year after year alongside me. We all love and miss you very much. I have not forgotten all the things you told and I will keep them forever in my heart. We were always there for one another, and as you told me many years ago, "No one will ever come between us, no matter what, because I love you." I will never forget those wonderful words. Jim, I have known you for quite a few years but the best years of it have been being your daughter in law. The day I married your son was amazing but the day I gave birth to your beautiful granddaughter Lily Marie was even better. I remember the look on your face when you walked in and saw her and the light in your eyes when you held her. You have given her the passion for birds that you had. My son Christopher that you taught all about Star Wars to and got him hooked on it too, he won't stop asking about his grandpa Jim, he misses you a lot. Don't worry about your son James, I'll take care of him always and we have decided to keep your store at the flea market going, we know you would've wanted Big Jim's Hidden Treasures to live on. I am so glad that you were part of all of our lives, you have touched so many with your sweet, funny, sometimes peculiar and most of all loving ways. You were and always be a great man. You have certainly raised two amazing kids that's for sure. Don't worry your grandbabies will be raised to be just as amazing if not more. You weren't just a father in law you were dad, so rest in peace Jim, love you.

Jimmy it is so difficult to think of my life without you in it. When the phone rings I think it might be you. When I see a white van I look for you. Then I remember. He is no longer here. My eyes fill with tears and I wonder if the pain will ever stop. Will there come a day that my heart no longer aches? I feel that half of me is missing. You were a fantastic, wonderful man. You were loved and respected by many people. My friends still laugh at the crazy things we use to do. You had a great sense of humor and you were the life of the party. Your sweetness, but most of all your love touched my heart. There will never be another Jimmy. Rest in peace my love and know that each day you will be in my thoughts, prayers and my heart. The long talks that we had and all of the memories will stay with me forever. Go with God Jimmy and know that you will have my love today and always. Our bond will never be broken.
