Mary Sturmer

JUL 23, 1920 - JAN 4, 2017

Mary Louise Sturmer

Was born in Greenpoint Brooklyn, on July 23, 1920 to Mary Kate and George Conrad Bierweiler. She had a twin brother John, and a younger sister Nora, both deceased.

She worked for The Watchmotor Company on the lower East Side of Manhattan, during the war, assembling timing mechanisms used during the war. While working there, she met her husband William Stephan Sturmer, who preceded her in death in 2007.

She is survived by her son Kenneth William Sturmer of New Port Richey, Florida.

I have very fond memories of Aunt Mary, Uncle Billy and Kenny coming to Middleburg New York for summer vacations. Aunt Mary was so beautiful and I got such a kick out of her putting a special hanky on top of her head before she went to church on Sunday. Kenny fit right in with our friends and we had a wonderful time playing together in town and on the Borell farm. Such nice memories!
