My Shelly – my baby girl. Gone at age 45 – way too young. I will miss your frequent midnight phone calls giving me all the news from Florida and getting all the news from New York. You left New York ten years ago, so I've only seen you three or four times in the last ten years. I am so sorry that I couldn't be with you in your last few weeks, but at my age I am unable to make that kind of trip anymore. John and I will cherish the memories of our visit to Florida four years ago, and memories of many happy times together. I will always love and miss you. --Love, Mom

Shelly..... the apple of her dad's eyes. In her eyes you could see... mischief, laughter, love, warmth and sadness..... from a baby to a teen then young mother and a woman. Thru all stages and life events Shelly did them her way and had a tremendous impact on everyone who got to know her. Her life was not all roses for sure but she gave it her all. She will be watching down on all of us with great love and her eyes will still be twinkling I bet and she will be smiling on everyone. Each time you now say you have been blessed for something or another. Think of Shelly! She will be handing out blessings right and left and watching over all ! You will be missed Shelly. Aunt Sally.

Such a sweet, kind and compassionate woman. The person that could light up a room with a simple smile. Someone that could love you when you couldn't love yourself. A devoted mother, wife and friend. I will savor nothing but precious memories and until we meet again, fly high sweetheart. We love you always to the moon and back! ❤️🙏❤️
