I will always remember the fun sleep overs with Mare Mar. The root beer floats and board games were always a blast at her house in gulf harbor. Driving with her and popper with my permit in their boat of a car. The pot roast dinners were another one of my favorites. A recent memory was when I called to talk to you a few months ago, and we were 10 minutes into the conversation before you realized you were talking to me and not Tyler.....haha Rest In Peace Mare Mar. You will be missed. I love you. Jason

Karen and I were friends as kids. Mrs. Kramer was such a sweet lady, always welcoming me into their home. May she rest in eternal peace.

I had the pleasure of meeting Barbara one Christmas Eve over 15 years ago through Karen and Brian, my neighbors who became good friends. Barbara was tiny little thing with a lot of spunk. She would share her "two cents" worth even if you were not prepared for it. She wise and shared her knowledge with everyone. She loved her grandchildren but her love for the great grandchildren was wonderful. She loved being around them and it showed. She will be missed, but now she is without suffering and pain and is now reunited with her one true love Ken Kramer. Barbara you are now at peace, it was a pleasure knowing you.
