Barbara Jean Fricano

DEC 13, 1944 - APR 20, 2019

FRICANO, Barbara Jean 74, of Hudson, passed away April 20, 2019. Jeanne grew up in Scranton, Pennsylvania before moving to New York City at 17. It was there in 1967 that she met and secretly eloped the love of her life, Salvatore Fricano. After keeping their elopement a secret for two years, the couple had a large church wedding in Brooklyn in 1969 and together they raised three sons: Salvatore, Richard, and Joseph.

Jeanne worked as a word processor for Hawkins Delafield and Wood Law Firm in New York and was considered a personal asset to many of the attorneys at the firm thanks to her computer proficiency and hard work ethic.

One of Jeanne's great passions in life was her artwork, specifically ceramics. She and Salvatore owned a ceramics shop in Brooklyn where they worked hand in hand as a team. Salvatore would pour the molds and Jeanie would paint and fire the pieces. In addition to her ceramics, she also enjoyed many other mediums including crocheting, metal embossing, and china painting.

Jeanne loved children and had a special relationship with many of the neighborhood kids. She was known to everyone as "Aunt Jeanne" and was famous for her cooking and entertaining, her extensive recipe book collection, and her annual Christmas Eve dinner.

She is survived by her loving husband, Salvatore John Fricano; sons Salvatore Joseph, Richard Anthony, and Joseph Bart Fricano; eight grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Once you met Jeanne you were with her for life because you never wanted to leave her, she made everyone smile , eat, laugh, but never cry she had a way approaching life called reality. She loved large , she lived large and she gave large, and never wanted anything back but a smile. There are no words to describe Jeanne to the love of her children , Sal, her family, her friends and if you know Jeannie strangers as well she loved large and had no filter lol JeNnie was as honest as you will ever met. How do we all gone on without her ??? Me personally I learned more for Jeannie and Sal than I did from anyone else I knew. She penetrated my heart and that is where I will keep her, I feel so sad for her family to live without her, it if you loved her you will live with her in your heart forever. For me my heart is broken she gave me some of the best laughs and memories in my life. My life met the queen of laughter and I will treasure it forever . Deenie May you always reign supreme . I loved you from day 1 and will till we meet again. God help us all
