I was blessed to spend the last eleven days of her life with her. While we will miss her terribly, we are comforted in knowing she is pain free and in the arms of Jesus.

Lois Gainer was my sister-in-law's beautiful and classy mother. She touched my heart with her love for family and her strong faith in God. She loved to talk about Jesus. She would rather call you than send a card—more personal. She leaves a wonderful legacy of love and inspiration for her huge family and friends.

I miss my sweet little mother every day. I am so glad that she is now pain free and with the Lord who she loved so much and talked with so often. Heaven is so dear to me...even more than before!
