Born in Cornwall, NY he spent his childhood in Orange County, NY, and Northern Connecticut. He moved to Hudson, FL as an adult and was a longtime resident. Ron was the owner of A.V. Turf Equipment. He was preceded in death by his parents Ronald, Sr., and Julia Vincent. Survivors include his loving wife of 39 years, Celia and devoted daughter, Jennifer Marie Vincent; Sister, Renee Amoroso, of Hudson, FL; Sister, Julieanne Roath of Hudson, FL; Aunt, Jacqueline Vincent Pasquine of Arlington, VA; Uncle, Daniel W. Vincent and Dolores Vincent of Longwood, FL; Aunt, Gudrun Haenelt of Hudson, FL; Cousin, Elizabeth Pasquine of Arlington, VA; Cousin, Mark Vincent Pasquine of Alesund, Norway; Cousin, Daniel Vincent, III of Scottsdale, AZ; Nephew, Bruce Amoroso, of Hudson, FL; Nephew Ryan Roath of Hudson, FL. Ron loved his wife and daughter totally. He also loved fur and feathered animals. He would take his goat, Sparky and later Airedale Piko on car and truck rides. He made a hoist to lift Piko into his seat in the truck when he could no longer make it on his own. He took Jennifer's dog Sassy on walks in her stroller and played on the floor with his parrot "Bird" almost every single night. Neighborhood dogs would come to visit with him. You could never find him far from his tools. He was a trained electrician and designed the new addition to their house with complete drawings for the construction team. He had to have plans. He will not be forgotten.
