Phillip Roger Penne

OCT 26, 1950 - MAR 29, 2021

Mr. Phillip Roger Penne, 70, of Hudson, Florida passed away on March 29, 2021 at Spring Hill. He was born October 26, 1950 to Walter and Jacqueline (Snyder) Penne in Elgin, Illinois. He worked as an IT manager for the Home Shopping Network. He was an published author, nature photographer, public speaker, digital artist, and creator of unique handcrafted items of wood, including Native American style flutes and pentatonically tuned wind chimes. He said "My mind is a strange place, full of twists, turns, and surprises." Phil was a member of both MENSA and Intertel. He is survived by his mother, and sons Trevor and Ian.

Charlie And Kim Cox lit a candle in honor of Phillip.

We will remember you Phil not just as a talented "Jack of all Trades" (flute player, flute/chimes maker, author, artist) but most of all a "friend" and local community brother. You were a person wise beyond your years. We played the chimes you made for us and they still vibrate through our hearts. RIP and play your songs for creator. Our sincere condolences to Phil's family. Kim and Charlie Cox
