SW

Sonia Winston lit a candle in honor of Trudy.

My mother was such a hard working, caring person who always showed love to all of her family and friends. Her door was always open and there was always food on the table for anyone who walked on through. She did everything for her children and grandchildren. She was a woman who always believed in making memories to last a lifetime that could be passed from generation to generation. She was definitely taken from us way too soon but in no way will she ever be forgotten.
