jr. was a very special person. i had seen him in church but didn,t meet him until we opened a business and needed help. my mom told him to call jr.. best move we could make. he was always there for me. whatever he was asked to do he did happily. over the years i came to love him and knew the customers loved him . he loved the Lord and is now at rest. praise God!

Clifford or Jr. as we called him, worked for our company (The Lighting Gallery) for many years. He was such and honest and honorable man. He always gave his best effort every day. I knew that I could always count on Jr. to do the right thing on behalf of my company. We all knew if Jr. told you something, that you could count on it being the truth. He was not capable of being dishonest. We had many customers over the years that would ask about Jr. and how he was doing as he got older. I know that he will be missed by many. He was just one of those people that made you feel better for knowing him.R.I.P. Mr. Beck. We will miss you and your smiling face.Mike and Dayline Laborda
