I wish I could see you one more time, but I know that is impossible. I will not see your face or hear your voice again. The pain that I feel can not be described. I know you can feel my tears and you don't want me to cry, yet my heart is aching because I don't understand why you were taken so soon. The memories I have I will always cherish. I will keep you in my heart until we meet again.

My first memory of Tom was when we met. He had prepared brunch for us. It was my first time trying biscuits and gravy! He was so welcoming and made me feel at ease with his humor and hospitality. I loved and cared for him and I promise to keep his memory alive with his grandchildren. He will be missed. My condolences to the King family . ❤️ With love, -Mayra-

Tom and I spent many Sunday mornings at the Sumpter county car show and swap meet. Spending time together talking cars and life in general was always a high point of the month. We also worked together several years at MJS INC. and I learned much from Tombo. I will miss our chats and cherish the memories. Paul W.
