Katrina Rinz posted:

Mary lived in our neighborhood. Though we did not know each other well, I was always touched by her smile and friendly wave as she would be walking Honey and I would be walking my dogs. We would stop and chat for a few minutes before continuing on our respective walks. My heart grieves for her family and close friends in their physical loss of Mary, her husband George and Honey. But I rejoice in Christ's promise of life eternal for those who walk in Faith.

Mary and George were my sister's neighbors. Mary was amazing...always smiling and always something nice to say! I know she will be missed by all who knew her. She and George are now in the arms of the angels...may they rest in peace.
