Elaine Gehris posted:

Eleanor was one of the nicest kindest person I had the honor of knowing. She was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother. She just lit up whenever she spoke of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Above all she was a terrific wife and a great teacher to all who knew her

Eleanor had a sparkle in her eyes and could be quite mischievous. I always enjoyed her company especially when we played scrabble and kicked everyone's butt. I have fond memories of visiting her in Clearwater that I will always cherish RIP Eleanor
