Aunt Pat, as I knew her was really an intelligent woman and dearly loved all who she came in contact with. She befriended several in her time. She loved her place which she kept very private. She loved her niece Debbie and depended on her quite a bit as she would drive or fly Donn. She loved her tenants that took extraordinary care of her property. She worried about her son. She loved commu her tiny but committed community within her strongly set boundaries. She opened her heart wide once she accepted you. We camped in her yard and throughly enjoyed her stories! She had many to tell as she loved deeply her life. She will be missed .

There is so many Good Memories I could share with You All hear about Such a Loving, Caring Person & Beautiful Soul that my Aunt Pat is & will Always be & there's not enough room on here to share it All, but I will start here : my Aunt Pat told me that my Daddy was A Whiskey Runner back in the day in the hills of Kentucky & She was over the house visiting Her Sister Virginia (my Mother) & She heard someone pull up to the house & beeb the horn, Her Sister Virginia grabbed some full mason jars and started to the Door & Aunt Pat said to Her why don't You put in a sliding window in that way Your Husband could just pull up to the window to restock, with that said Aunt Pat invented the first drive through window. I get a kick out of that every time it comes to my mind. On more of a serious memory This Beautiful Person The Polly's Family's Aunt Pat told Us that She again was over visiting in 1953 & Our little baby Sister (Cheryl) was sick with what They didn't know at the time was later diagnosed pneumonia that there was no cure for, Our Parents had to leave the house & Aunt Pat wanted to baby sit, so She did, now it was December 23 and Our Parents had put up a Christmas tree, and ask Aunt Pat not to show it to Cheryl because they wanted to show Her it later. Well as God would have it Cheryl passed that night at 18 months Young. Our Mother Virginia (Aunt Pat's Sister) was so upset with also not showing Cheryl the Christmas tree All lit up ,and Aunt Pat not wanting to tell Her Sister Virginia that She did show Cheryl the tree thinking that Her Sister would be upset if She told Her that She had showed Her The Tree, well something like 30 years went by and Aunt Pat told Our Mother that She had showed Her The Tree and that Cheryl was in amazement of it and so Happy to see it. Well I must tell You All that when Aunt Pat told Our Mother this All them years later, Our Mother broke down in Tears Of Happiness and couldn't Thank Her Sister Pat Enough. To me that is Very Blessed. Another Great Memory for me is when Aunt Pat came forward in 2012 at Her Little Sister (my God Mother) Gertrude Madacki's funeral and She talked about Family Value's to All Present, What She Gave Us There Was The Value's Of Keeping Close To Family Members ,and when You Think about one pick up the phone and call them and Share The Love. Another Blessed Memory I'll Always Hold onto. I know Personally that My Aunt Pat Has The Faith, and She Fought The Good Fight, and I know that All Her Loved Ones Will See Her Again With That Youthful Body That GOD Promises Us. My Sincere Condolences, Love & Prayers For The Comfort that Surpasses All Our understanding To Family, and All That Loved Her. Rest in Peace My Wonderful & Beautiful Aunt Pat ,And Thank You For All You Have Shared with me over my lifetime. I Will Truly Miss You Until We Meet Again. Memories & Love sent From Your Nephew Jess
