Eddie lit a candle in honor of Wiley.

Our families have shared a bond that has stood the test of time—a connection rooted in love, loyalty, and an unwavering sense of togetherness. From our parents, Sonny and Velva, to us kids—Debbie and Jerry, Eddie and Coleen, and LaJean and Mike. Pat, Joan, and their children, Terry, Little Pat, John, Missy, and Dana as well as all their children have always been more than friends. They've been part of our family in every meaningful way. Pat was the kind of friend everyone dreams of having—a man whose loyalty, kindness, and love knew no bounds. Through every high and low, he stood by our side, offering strength and support. The friendship forged between our parents, Sonny and Velva and Pat and Joan was more than just companionship; it was a bond as strong as family itself. Whether at work or gathered together in backyards, there was always laughter, support, and the unmistakable feeling that we all belonged to something special. Pat was a man of true integrity, always ready with a warm smile or a helping hand. He treated us kids as if we were his own, making sure we grew up surrounded by the love and friendship that he helped create. Whether it was a simple picnic, a family dinner, or holiday celebrations, our families were inseparable. We shared life's moments as one, blurring the line between friendship and family, and those memories have become part of who we are. Pat's strength, loyalty, and character left a lasting impression on all of us. He showed us what it means to be a true friend, to stand by those you love, and to give wholeheartedly. Even as the years have passed, the bond between our families remains as unshakable as ever, a testament to Pat's incredible influence on all of our lives. His memory lives on in every shared story, every laugh, and every moment we continue to cherish together. Pat will forever hold a special place in our hearts. His kindness, his love, and his strength have left an indelible mark on our families, and we are forever grateful for the friendship that shaped our lives in such meaningful ways. The Baileys aren't just friends to us—they are family, and they always will be. Our hearts are broken, and a part of us is missing, but the love we share will never fade. We love you all, forever. With love and gratitude, Eddie, Coleen, and Family
