Rene Mendoza Shorter lit a candle in honor of Rosalinda.

Rosie, you were an exceptionally beautiful friend, and your passing has left me with profound heartbreak. I am finding it challenging to come to terms with the fact that I will never have the opportunity to see or speak with you again. I hold dear the numerous fond memories we shared, which span from our grammar school days to our time in high school, college, and early adulthood. Your captivating laughter and beauty will forever be etched in my heart. My deepest condolences to the Nava family
