She was so much more than a friend she was a mother figure for me for so many years. I will truly miss her. We would talk every day. I can honestly say that since her husband Joe passed in 09 there were only a handful of days that we didn't talk. I love her and miss her so much.

Patricia liked going to thrift stores ,so her and I would go to a few thrift stores,when we spent a day together,one outing we went to some thrift stores , and Patricia goes rigjt for the clothes,she would spend an hour looking at blouse after blouse til she found a dazzling blouse,one day I fell asleep on a couch ,for sale,she had been looking for me half out of breath and yells Bernadette as loud as she could,I have to say it was so funny seeing the look on her face when she found me,you were a funny lady,when you weren't feeling bad,may God be with you
