Yuwei Kang

JUN 5, 1943 - MAY 30, 2025

Ms. Connie Kang rested in the arms of the Lord on May 30, 2025 at the age of 81. She was born in Qingdao, China on June 5, 1943 to Mr. Ying Kang and Ms. Guiruo Li as the youngest among the five children. Her parents were loving and caring Christians and dedicated to their children's spiritual, educational, moral, and physical well-being.

Ms. Kang became a pharmacist and married Mr. Dianji Li. Ms. Kang dedicated all her life and made sacrifices to her family as a gentle, loving, and caring mother, wife, and daughter. There is no better mother like her on earth. As her children, we would not have been successful without her dedications. Ms. Kang also devoted herself to her career, striving to be the best with big accomplishments. She's done research and published to help advance the field of pharmacy. Ms. Kang treated her friends and colleagues by always keeping their best interests in mind with a helpful heart. She was always sincere, gentle, willing to go an extra mile to help, kind, and compassionate.

After baptism, Ms. Kang devoted her time and talent to help her sisters and brothers. She was also passionate about sharing the Gospel and being nourished and spiritual growth in the Lord.

Mom, may you rest peacefully in the arms of the Lord, our Shepherd. You are full of joy in Heaven. You are the best. We love you and miss you. Psalm 23.
