Peter Vincent Spadola

JUN 16, 1957 - JUL 2, 2025

Peter Vincent Spadola, 68, of Spring Hill, Florida, passed away peacefully on July 2, 2025.

Born on June 16, 1957, in New York, NY, Peter was the beloved son of the late Nicholas and Filomena Spadola. He proudly served his country as a soldier in the United States Army, demonstrating honor, strength, and dedication.

Peter had a generous heart and a passion for helping others. He volunteered with the Special Olympics, bringing joy and support to individuals with special needs. A true jack of all trades, Peter was known for his love of coin collecting, riding motorcycles, building and fixing things, and nurturing plants through his interest in horticulture.

He is survived by his loving daughters, Nicole Lane and Stephanie Briody; his cherished grandchildren, Romello, Savannah, Joey, Shawn, and Jaxson; and his loyal dog, Bear, who was his constant companion. Peter also leaves behind his sisters, Margaret and Louisa, and his brothers, Anthony, Michael, Danny, and Jimmy.

Peter will be remembered for his kind spirit, his many talents, and the love he shared with his family and friends. He will be deeply missed and forever in our hearts.
