Rodman, Diana Marie

OCT 12, 1957 - DEC 29, 2025

Diana Rodman (Stadelman), age 68, of New Port Richey, Florida, passed away peacefully on Monday, December 29, 2025, surrounded by love.

Diana was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and the heart of her family. Her life was defined by her deep love for those closest to her, and her greatest joy was her beloved family. She found happiness in life's simple pleasures.

Diana loved camping, canning, and spending time at the beach with her four beloved dogs. She had a fondness for clowns and Tigger from Winnie the Pooh, which reflected her playful and lighthearted spirit. Music was also close to her heart, and she especially loved playing her flute, a talent that brought joy to both herself and those around her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Rodman, who passed in 2023, and her brother Lawrence. She is survived by her brothers David, Joe, Chuck, Jeff, and Kevin.

Diana leaves behind her cherished children and grandchildren: - James and Carlyann, and their two daughters - Joshua and Jessica, and their six children - Alex and Lyndsey, and their two daughters

Diana's love was unconditional, her heart gentle, and her presence unforgettable. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who were blessed to know and love her.
