One of the very first gifts I received in my life was a giant stuffed purple frog from my Aunt June! I still have it and treasured this handsewn gift she had made for baby me. More recently, I would often be pleasantly surprised by a handwritten card from Aunt June arriving in the mail: birthdays, anniversary, Christmas; Aunt June strived to keep the family connection and took opportunities to encourage and bless when she could. I always appreciated her prayers for our family and ministry. She was a loving aunt!

mom loved many things, she sewed my sister and I matching outfits when we were young (some we loved, some we didn't), I remember her always baking and at Christmas she made all kinds of cookies and candy. I like to believe I got my love of those things from her. Her flowers, mom really loved flowers and plants, everywhere she lived she grew as many as she could. She was a great mom, a caring, happy, kind, wonderful person. Her belief in God followed her and deepened as she got older, yet never wavered. I can't begin to list all my favorite memories. Im glad she is with her Lord and not suffering, Ill miss her every moment of everyday.
