“ It is with a sad heart I read all these comments, but am not surprised by how many lives you touched. We didn't work together very long, but I was always impressed by how knowledgeable you were about the travel industry. We talked about our cats a few times, and we had fun at dinner when you were in Columbus for training - and we "messed" with those people with the New York license plates!!

You will be missed by many people. RIP, Michael.

“ I have known Michael for almost 30 years. I met him at Dynasty Travel in Coral Springs, Fl. I was living in Margate and one day there was a knock on my door, it was Michael and he's been knocking on my door every since. I will love and take care of Lu Lu, Gracie, Cookie, Tiger and Oreo and Jack. But, you know that. I loved Michael and he knew it because I told him. Rest In Peace my special friend. I'll always be waiting on that knock on my door.

Love Jeane

“ My heart aches when I heard the news. I've worked with Michael Gagnon aka "Mickey poo" in the ticketing department at Miami Lakes office. Only good memories I have of Mickey poo and his cats. You will be greatly missed. Love "sophie doo", my name from Michael.

“ I am very saddened to hear of Mike's passing. I met Mike 21 years ago, we worked together out of the Miami office for American Express travel. Later we both worked together out of the Fort Lauderdale office. When Mike fell on some hard times I gave him a room at my house where he lived for about a year and we still worked together. When Mike got back on his feet again and moved out I hired him part time to be a caregiver to my dad who was suffering from severe Parkinson's disease. Mike loved my dad and my dad loved Mike and he was great at taking care of my dad until my dad passed. I have many, many fond memories of Mike. Mike will be missed sorely. God bless my friend.

Love ya Mike,

“ I met MJ aka Michael over 8 years ago in an online chatroom. We have been friends ever since. They say online friendships can't be real. This one was. We spoke almost every night, morning or both. He always had an ear to listen or opinion to share if asked. He would tell me what he thought even if he knew I did not want to hear it. Sometimes he would let it happen and come back to let me know he knew it but I had to find out on my own. He was a good friend.

Over the last year I lost family members my mom being the biggest lost. MJ was there for all of them. Not in person but with an open ear. This year was the hardest because for the first time I was alone. But I had him to help get me through the hard times. He was there when I had applied for my first job in some years and got it. He was there when I had to move to another Job I was also there for him. At least I hope he felt I was. Anytime i needed him to look over important papers he would do it. He would also edit it if need be. He was around for when my dad passed away, the same week of his moms passing.

This year MJ wanted to go home for thanksgiving but did not. He did chat with me for a while knowing It was my first with out my parents. It was special that he took the time for me. I chatting with him over this last weekend. He told me he was traveling to see a friend. On Sunday we chatting again. I talking about the price of chicken. Later, he informing me he was at Walmart picking up glue. Then that night we chatting for one last time I did not know it then. I asked what he was doing he said eating peanut butter before bed. His last words to me in our chat was oh to something I went on about.

Two days later, I found out he was gone.

i never got to meet him. But I want to thank his Family and Friends for sharing him with me. I would like to thank him for taking this 38 year old over the last year and helping him grow into the person I am today. He is missed.

I will remember Micheal for always being Happy and Funny. Always wanted to make fun of me and I of him and also would sent a funny sticker or two. He was always there when I needed him and I will so so miss him.
