“ Sister Cobb was a kind, warm hearted and strong woman. She always welcomed me and my children into her home with kindness and hospitality. The last memory i have with her was in 2019 She hosted myself and other bros and sisters from her congregation. She always did what she could to make anyone feel good in her home. She will be missed. Look forward to seeing her again soon in paradise. To the Cobb family- my deepest condolences.... My heart aches for you. She was a sttong pillar and her absence will be felt. But you carry her stregnth and faith. This along with the promises Jehovah has for us will get you through the toughest of times. My prayers are with you. Love you, ~Gina Cuthbert

When reflecting back on her life, happy spirit, love for God and hospitable nature. We are certain that it was not all in vain. The friends and family she held closest to her heart remains closest to our hearts as well. You are loved and appreciated, never forget this in your last breath. As Patricia "mommy" Cobb would only have it. We send the biggest Love and Hugs in her behalf.

“ This was the hardest thing I ever had to do lately !! My dear oldest sister n law Patricia Cobb aka Pat was one of my closer dearest friends and over the years we have shared many good experiences and like most known Pat loved to travel either with others or my friend would take long trips by herself and enjoy it I could never do that but that's one of the things I loved about her as a strong person spiritually and otherwise- over the years she has been a confidant who I could share situations in life with serious and fun and she loved to have fun and games always waiting to play I regret she left us so unexpectedly I had a game I just learned and wanted to share with her i knew she would have loved it and in the end she ask me the last time she saw me' did you think that we would be like this after we retired having health problems? I shook my head No!!but I can't wait to see my sister and friend again soon

“ Dear Cobb Family

Our hearts are saddened by the loss of our beloved Sister Pat Cobb. Your Orlando friends were reminiscing about how welcoming and hospitable Mama Cobb always was when we came in town and visited your home to hang out, or drive to a gathering with Sherrea, Madrika and Paula; her lovely, spiritual-minded and drama-free daughters. Your warm inviting nature was obviously an extension of your beautiful, generous and loving mother. From letting us just chill out, change clothes, use the bathroom before getting on the highway or feeding us; she just let us come every time and showed concern as our own Moms would have. I(Angie) was deeply grateful when she, unbeknownst to me visited my congregation 2yrs ago just when I needed a spiritual Mom to encourage me to endure an emotional trial. It was such a difficult time for me but a wonderful surprise. Paula remember we called you to celebrate the surprise visit Mama Cobb made my pain more bearable with her positive viewpoint, strong embrace with hope of better times soon ahead and encouragement to not give up or lose my joy in service to Jehovah. She nor I had any idea how Jehovah would bless us through our "interchange" and "happiness received by giving and receiving". I am forever grateful!

We love you all and are praying continually for you to be, strengthened, sustained and comforted in Jehovah's bosom daily until he begins our joyous family reunions!
Your friends, Paula, Angie and Tara

Paula, Angie and Tara - January 24 at 08:10 PM

“ Angie those were wonderful memories! O thank you so much for caring, remembering her. Loving her just as much as she loved us all. You are right she did pass on a bit of her character to us, but most importantly, her love for our heavenly father. In his embrace we are safest. So now is mom, :(if we could have her back now we'd make that happen..... we love you girls! Hugs!

Maddi - January 24 at 10:35 PM

“ I am at a loss for words right now! This one really hurts!! There was a time when me and Vance were hanging in the world and this was actually the first time Vance introduced me to Mom and although in her heart she did not want Vance in the world he had chosen and she accepted it. I was older than cuz, and I will never forget that stern look on her face when she uttered these words, "Ben, LOOK AFTER MY SON"!!! And I looked back into her eyes and said I will watch over him and I have kept my word and will always stand true to it Rest assured Mom that Our contract is still binding until the world is no more for me!!! I will miss you, your voice and concern not only for our life but our souls as well!!!! You have finished the race now we must finish ours!!!! And although Without you in this world it will spin in shades of gray, you brought so many vibrant colors into it! Rest easy Mom of many hats!!! You will be greatly missed and never forgotten I love you!!!!!!

Benjamin green - January 24 at 12:38 PM

“ That sounds exactly like my momma Ben - yes, thank you for looking after of "Our Vance" - you noticed the hat :)

Sherrea N. - January 29 at 10:06 PM

“ I did notice the hats!!!! I hope that you will find peace and comfort in this unforeseen event. My heart is with you, along with my prayers . One day at a time the burden will ease up, but never go away!!!

Benjamin green - January 30 at 08:46 AM

“ Dear Cobb Family

I've been looking for the right words to say as sometimes knowing what to say is very difficult. At times, words that come from the heart are the best words to heal. There are no words to express to you how deeply sorry I am for your loss. Aunt Pat will truly be missed but never forgotten.

When I think of Aunt Pat, I think of her funny personality, the preparation of the best foods, how caring she was, her laughter, love for her family, Jehovah, and friends. Always remember we are family, we have to lean on one another even when you feel like "we got it", here is that extra hand to hold and the extra arms to hug so you know "we got you".

Uncle Ervin, Madrika, Sherrea, Paula, Vance, and the grandkids--I love you. Keep the memories of Aunt Pat in the forefront of your minds, which i know you will, as she would want you to smile and stay close. Remember loss is only temporary, its not a goodbye its "see you later".

Love your cousin and niece Veronica Lanier

Veronica Lanier - January 24 at 12:23 PM

“ Love you too cousin -

Oh the times we had here in Florida, enjoying the cooking and late nights acting crazy as children while all the grown folk (my momma and the rest of the family) cooked and laughed in the other room ..

Sherrea N. - January 29 at 10:04 PM

“ In this time of the END, We all are dealing with stressful situations, especially when we loose a love one in death. Our God Jehovah gives us comfort. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 says he is a God of all comfort. He comforts us when we are dealing with trials. Jehovah can us the fleshy family members and the spiritual family members to give us comfort. In 2 Corinthians 1:6 it says when we are comforted, we can endure these trials and sufferings. When a close family member or a very close friend loose a love one, we feel like Jesus when he saw family members and friends of Lazarus weeping after Lazarus had died. According to John 11:35, Jesus began to cry even though he knew that Lazarus was going to be resurrected immediately. He was crying because as verse 33 mention in chapter 11 of John, the relatives and friends were mourning. We are like that today when one of our close relatives or friends loose a love one. And remember what Jesus said in John 11:11, "Lazarus our friend has fallen asleep ", Lazarus was dead, but since he was going to come back alive, it is like sleeping. Pat has fallen asleep and we look forward to seeing her resurrected in coming paradise earth. Psalms 37:11,29

“ My heart breaks for the Patricia Cobb family. As longtime friends and associates through the Kingdom Hall in Dunedin Florida I have very fond memories of all of you. As you know I have also lost the wife and mother of my children. Though that was nine years ago in December 2011 I well know how difficult the process is to lose what is most cherished in your life. That is why we are so indebted to Jehovah for the resurrection hope. I pray that you will gain the strength needed to endure this situation from the God of Comfort and your large family of relatives, friends and spiritual brothers and sisters. My love to Ervin and family. Ron Bussell

“ Pat and Ervin studied with my family when we moved to Florida and have always been like family to us. I remember how happy she was when she found out that I finally got baptized. Pat always encouraged me to hang in there and never give up, despite whatever challenges may come my way. She was always willing to listen and had a smile that lit up any room she walked in. A pillar of strength in the congregation and a loving, caring, faithful servant of Jehovah. My heart is heavy, I will truly miss her!!

I can't tell you how very sorry I am for your loss, please know that you are all in my prayers and on my heart. I look forward to seeing her again. Hold on to the promises we have from our heavenly Father and remember that it won't be long now!!

“ To the Cobb family,

I never knew how much a eulogy could be for the man giving it, or the people reading it until this week. The eulogy is a recount of the great long life lived, and a celebration of extraordinary accomplishments. Auntie Pat's memory actually gives us comfort because we believe God has had a special purpose for her Will from the very beginning. No one ever wants to loose a love one, a mother, a sister, a wife, a true friend. But its instances like this that gives me faith that there is a force that is bigger than us. Auntie Pat we will meet again and I know that you will be there to welcome us all with open arms and good food.
