“ Phil was a true Christian. The years I knew him he gave God everything and never stopped. God would say to Phil "Good and well done faithful servant". I am proud to say he was a close friend and a loyal Christian. We should not forget to mention his work in Emaus, Kairos, Church, and Stephen's ministry. He never stopped writing to prisoners weekly till the end, an inspiration for us all.

“ I light a yellow candle in the name of friendship. Marjorie my hear breaks for you and your loved ones. I never met your dad, but to know you is an honor. I am deeply sorry for your loss. Hugs, Elizabeth Tarpey

“ I worked with Phil on a couple of Kairos teams. He was soft spoken but he had great wisdom. He was always an asset, always ready to serve and always with a positive attitude. He had a heart to give his best to the Lord. He will be greatly missed.
